IMMENSE ADDITIONAL ATTRACTIONS!
NEW NOVELS BY JAMES AND AINSWORTH.
MONTHLY SERIAL SUPPLEMENT TO THE NEW WORLD.
ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The great success which has attended the publication of the MONTHLY SERIAL SUPPLEMENT TO THE NEW WORLD, has induced the Publisher to include in it ALL THE POPULAR ROMANCES issued from the London Press in the monthly serial form, by the most CELEBRATED LIVING BRITISH AUTHORS: including G. P. R. James, Charles Dickens, W. Harrison Ainsworth, Charles Lever, Samuel Lover, and others. The Supplement is issued monthly, immediately upon the receipt of the London editions of the several novels embodied in it. It comprises 32 imperial octavo pages, in hand some type, and is undoubtedly the cheapest monthly in the world, containing more than any three dollar magazine in the United States, and the contents are from the pens of men of the first talents in Great Britain. This

LIBRARY OF MODERN ROMANCE was commenced in January, 1843, with the following deeply interesting works:
Tom Burke or "Ours," Forming the 2d volume of "Our Mess." By Charles Lever, Esq., author of "Charles O'Malley," "Jack Hinton," &c. Received and issued in advance of its publication in London, the proof sheets being purchased at a heavy expense. It is more popular than Charles O'Malley.
THE LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT. His Relatives, Friends and Enemies; Comprising his will and what he did and what he didn't; showing marvellous, who inherited the family plate, who came in for the silver spoon, and who for the wooden ladies. The whole forming a complete key to the House of Chuzzlewit. By Charles Dickens, Esq., author of "American Notes," "Barnaby Rudge," "Old Curiosity Shop," "Nicholas Nickleby," &c. &c. This is, beyond doubt, the best of all the popular productions of Mr. Dickens.

S. D., OR ACCOUNTS OF IRISH HUMORS.—Furnished to the public monthly, by Samuel Lover, Accountant for Irish Inheritances, and author of "Hurdy Andy," &c. It is in a different vein from the latter work, and will prove more popular with the people.

LOITERINGS OF ARTHUR O'LEARY. By Charles Lever, Esq., author of "Our Mess," "Harry Lorrequer," &c.
WINDSOR CASTLE, an Historical romance. By Wm. H. Ainsworth, author of "The Miser's daughter," "Tower of London," &c. (Complete.)

In the July number will be commenced the two following splendid novels:

MODERN CHIVALRY, or a new Orlando Furioso. By W. Harrison Ainsworth, author of "Windsor Castle," "Miser's Daughter," &c. This will be commenced in the July number.

A NEW NOVEL BY JAMES, the best living novelist.

Back numbers from the commencement can yet be supplied.

Every new subscriber will be furnished gratis with a copy of Dickens' American Notes for General Circulation, which will bind up with the Supplement.

TERMS.—The Monthly Supplement is printed upon fine paper and plain type, in a uniform style with the New World, and sent to subscribers throughout the United States and British America for the small sum of ONE DOLLAR per annum, remitted in advance, free of postage. specimen Numbers sent gratis.

A free copy of the supplement will be sent to any Postmaster or other person who will procure five dollars for five subscribers.

Address,

The following is a list of Lands and Town Lots in Union County, Ohio, forfeited to the State up to January 1st 1843.

THE UNION GAZETTE

EDITED BY JOHN CASSIL.

MARYSVILLE.

SATURDAY.....NOVEMBER 4

For President of the United States,
GEN. LEWIS CASS,
SUBJECT TO THE DECISION OF A NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

OATS!

We are in great need of some oats at present. Will some of our subscribers bring us a few bushels. The highest market price will be allowed in payment of debts due this office.

To the Democracy of Union County.

The State Central Committee, have named the eighth of January next, as the day for the Democracy of Ohio to hold the State Convention. This Convention will be an important one—we are just on the verge of the Presidential Campaign of '44. This Convention will nominate a candidate for the Gubernatorial Chair and appoint delegates to the National Convention.—Preparatory to this great duty the Democrats in the different Counties must hold primary meetings, express freely their individual views, and appoint delegates in accordance with their wishes. In accordance with these views, the Democratic Central Committee for Union County, suggest that the Democracy of said County, meet at the Court House in Marysville on Friday the 17th inst. at ten o'clock, then and there to transact such business as is within their power and the necessity of the country demands.

JOHN CASSIL,
JOHN W. CHERRY,
A. HALL,
J. D. IRWIN,
O. C. KENNADY.
November, 3d. 1843.

Mad River & Lake Erie Rail Road.

We understand that at the recent meeting of the stockholders of this company at Urbana, that, the old board of Directors with Gen. Vance at their head as President was turned out and a new board elected. We are pleased to learn that the new board have chosen Maj. William Hunt, of Clark County, a genuine Democrat, President.

For some time past a bitter controversy has been going on between John H. James, of Urbana Bank notoriety, and Gen. Vance, in which each have labored with zeal and energy to convince the public, that the other was a great scoundrel.

Taking it for granted that these men knew each other, we are gratified, although we have no direct interest in the Road, that its management has fallen into honest hands, and that a good and true democrat is honored with its Presidency.

UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM MISSOURI.

The Governor of Missouri has appointed the Hon. David R. Atchison, of Platte county, to supply the vacancy in the United States Senate, occasioned by the death of Dr. Linn.

Statesman.

GERRYMANDERS.—The Advertiser speaks of the result of the election of members of Congress in Ohio and Pennsylvania, where the democrats have elected twenty four to the whigs twenty one, as a rebuke to the democrats for gerrymandering the districts. Who gerrymandered New Jersey, and what is the rebuke and who is rebuked there, Mr. Advertiser?—Free Press. Yes, and who gerrymandered Kentucky? Who gerrymandered Massachusetts? And who gerrymandered Rhode Island? These coons are an honest set of fellows, truly! They gerrymander! Poor fellows!!—Statesman.

O. C. KENNADY,
Auditor of Union County, Ohio.

GO IT, COONS!

The Clay whigs have had a sort of drunken jollification at Elyria, in Lorain county, and thus "roll" their "fiery billows" at the "Liberty party," "a natural daughter of whiggery," as was anti-masonry, we suppose.—Statesman.

"The Liberty Party—A natural daughter of whiggery, betrayed and absconded with a darkie, followed, overtaken and seduced by a lock-fake—having received a sound beating from the old lady, she is left for the present at the head of Salt River, and there to weep in silence, her feet standing on slippery rocks while fiery billows roll below."

We copy the above as we find it in the Clay paper (the Atlas) at Elyria.—We presume it is intended as a general kicking out.—lb.

It is state! that snow between Robes-ter and Buffalo lies two feet deep on a level

OHIO ELECTION.

After all the talk, and whole sale bragging, Ohio only gives a whig legislative majority of two on joint ballot. The democrats have a majority of four in the Senate, and the whigs a majority of six in the Assembly. The whigs elected nine members of Congress, and the democrats twelve. What a little it takes to make a whig triumph!

[Spirit of the Times.

NEW JERSEY.

The full returns of the late election in New Jersey show a Democratic majority of near 5,900!

GENERAL BERTRAND.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser of the 19th inst says:—"Marshal Ber-trand, accompanied by his son, arrived here yesterday afternoon, in a tempest almost as fierce as that which howled around the lone isle of the ocean when the stormy soul of Napoleon took its departure. The Marshall went down to the falls this morning, whence he will return this afternoon and leave town for the east to-morrow morning."

On Friday morning he reviewed the United States troops stationed at Buffalo, and in the afternoon left in the eastern cars.

GRAMMAR IN THE BACKWOODS.—"Class in grammar may come on the floor. Now John commence."

'All the world is indelt; 'parse world.

'World is a general noun, common metre, objective case, and governed by m-t-ler.'

'Very well; Sam parse debt.'

'Debt is a common noun, impressive mood and dreadful case.'

'That'll do; read the next sentence.'

'Boys and girls must have their play.'

'Phillip, parse boys.'

'Boys is a particular noun, singular number, uncertain mood, laughable case, and agrees with girls.'

'The next.'

'Boys is a masculine noun, inferior number, conjunctive mood, and belongs to the girls, with which it agrees.'

I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct list of lands and town lots returned delinquent by Alexander Pollock, Treasurer of Union county, for the year 1841, upon which the taxes have not been paid, to which is added twenty five per cent penalty, and six per cent interest, and the simple tax for 1842.

Notice is hereby given, that the whole of the several tracts of land and town lots and parts of lots, or as much thereof as will pay the taxes, interest and penalty charged thereon, will be offered for sale, each tract and town lot and part of lots, separately, at the door of the Court House, in the town of Marysville, County of Union, and State of Ohio, on the second Monday in the month of January next, being the 8th day thereof, by the Treasurer of said county, in order to satisfy such taxes, interest, and penalty: unless the same be paid into the County Treasury before said 2nd Monday in January, agreeably to the act entitled "An act prescribing the duties of county Auditors," passed and took effect March 23d, one thousand eight hundred and forty.

AUDITORS OFFICE, Marysville.

October 17, A. D. 1843,

O. C. KENNADY,
Auditor of Union County, Ohio.
